

SPECIAL POSITION LIQUIDATION AGREEMENT

The below Interactive Brokers LLC ("IBKR") customer ("Customer") agrees that Customer has made an unsolicited request to IBKR that IBKR attempt to liquidate the securities and/or commodities positions identified below (the "Positions") in Customer's account. Customer agrees that the positions are deemed to be illiquid. By completing and submitting this signed request to IBKR, the undersigned IBKR Customer acknowledges and agrees to the following:

1. Customer has made prior attempt(s) to sell or liquidate each of the Positions at their respective listing exchange and/or other public marketplace and has received no bids;
2. IBKR provides this service only as an accommodation to Customer. IBKR, in its capacity as agent for Customer, will arrange for a third-party or affiliate to purchase the Positions, or will purchase the Positions as principal. Customer agrees that the buyer may act as principal in the transaction and may realize either a profit or loss on the transaction. Customer agrees that neither IBKR nor the buyer of the securities shall have any obligations or liability to Customer as a result of buyer's purchase, or assumption, of the Positions;
3. The sale of the Positions, in whole or in part, is an ordinary sale transaction that is final and binding upon Customer;
4. As an ordinary sale transaction, the transactions that result from the assumption or purchase of the Positions may be subject to customary exchange and regulatory fees for which Customer is liable. In addition, Customer acknowledges that the gross proceeds from certain sale transactions are subject to Internal Revenue Service reporting requirements; and
5. In accordance with the foregoing, Customer requests that IBKR attempt to sell or liquidate each Position at an aggregate gross sales price equal to a single unit of the currency in which the securities to be sold generally trade (e.g., for U.S. stocks, USD $1.00, for U.K. stocks, GBP £1.00, etc.).
